About

Originally from the UK I grew up in a coastal town in the South West called Torbay. The ocean was a constant draw for me even in the cold winter months. Having an older brother always encouraging adventure I took it upon myself to see the world. With a love for the ocean and surfing I inevitably ended up coming to Australia in 2002.

After being in here for just a few months I made an easy, but very tough decision to stay. The ocean, lifestyle, weather and people were too much to resist. Now here for almost 20 years I couldn't imagine a life anywhere else.

I can't think of a better way to show my appreciation to this country.
